DRIVING SALES SUCCESS WITH CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm applying for the Multilingual Sales & Marketing Agent role at Concentrix. My bilingual skills in English and Russian, coupled with my extensive sales and customer service experience, make me a strong candidate.

As a Client Services Specialist at Concentrix, I've demonstrated a consistent ability to exceed performance targets. At BKC-International House, I led educational sales and built lasting customer relationships, consistently exceeding sales goals. This knack for customer engagement carried over to my time at Mexx, BNS Group, where I also consistently hit sales targets.

I am eager to apply these skills within a sales-focused role at Concentrix. I look forward to discussing this opportunity further.

Regards,
Liubov Kurlova,
